

THE NEWS.

Gen. Butler has issued a characteristic order for the suppression of the sale of liquor in his department. It is a long step in the right direction.

The communication of Gen. Butler to the rebel exchange commissioner will be found interesting. He can be let alone for taking care of himself and the government at the same time.

The Union officers confined in Libby Prison have made a successful break, and a number of them have already arrived within our lines. Among the men leaving the prison are Col. West of the 24th and Col. Hobart of the 21st.

The Thirteenth at Cairo.

Lieut. Hart of the 13th, telegraphs his brother, Wm. L. Hart of this city, that the Regiment would leave Cairo for home today at 2 P. M. No time is mentioned for the arrival here, but it will not probably be before to-morrow at 3 o'clock.

SEND IN PROVISIONS.

By the above paragraph it will be seen that the gallant 13th is expected here to-morrow. We know our citizens are only waiting to know when their donations of provisions are needed, to furnish every thing which will make the reception entertainment of these patriotic men generous and hearty. Send to Hyatt House Hall abundantly to-morrow morning from your choicest stores, and let the 13th see that they have a warm place in our regards.

STATE NEWS.

A number of sergeants at Camp Randall, Madison, who have been accepting bribes from the men for letting them out of camp without a furlough, and afterward arresting them, have called down a storm of indignation on their heads from the victims of their cupidity, and their malpractices coming to the ears of the proper authorities, the offending officers have been arrested and will undergo a court martial. During an excitement at the camp, growing out of this affair, a portion of the barracks was consumed by fire.—The Wood Co. Reporter says: "Our river banks are lined with lumber and shingles, and more hourly coming. Loggers in the woods are doing a more brisk and successful business than ever before."—The La Crosse Republican of the 13th, says the members of the La Crosse bar, on Friday organized a society for the purpose of establishing and maintaining uniform rates for legal services, and to procure a valuable law library, to which the lawyers of La Crosse and their law-students may have access. The officers of the Association are: Hon. Hugh Cameron, President; Dr. L. C. McKenney, vice President; Mr. Wing, Secretary; Judge Lyndes, Treasurer.—

The Portage State Register says: The Board of Supervisors of this county, has been in session for two days past, for the purpose of contracting for the building of the Court House, and also to determine the location of the same.

Quots and Credits.

A general order issued from the Adjutant General's office at Madison has the following in reference to the matter of credits and quotas which will be of general interest.

No quota has yet been assigned to this State by the War Department under the last call of the President, dated February 1, 1864. When the quota shall be assigned to the Congressional Districts of the State, it will, under the present order of the War Department, be assigned by the Board of enrollment in each district to the several towns and wards of the district.

The quota of each town or ward can be closely approximated by adding two thirds of the number already assigned in General Order No. 21 from this office, as the quota under the call of Oct. 17, 1863, for three hundred thousand; and the people of each community are urgently advised to continue the enlistment of volunteers upon that basis, that there may be less to accomplish in the short time that will elapse between the receipt of information and the day of the draft.

No information can at present be given from this office as to the credit due to the towns and wards of the state for volunteers enlisted under this call. Such information is being prepared as speedily as possible, and will contain all credits, whether of veterans or recruits, so far as reports are received at this office; but cannot be given to the public before the 20th inst.

The Appleton Crescent makes a great blow over two democratic towns in Outagamie county, that they have raised a larger sum for volunteer bounties than Appleton, which is a republican town with a larger population than the aforementioned towns. It is remarkable that two such towns could be found to surpass Appleton in patriotism, but it only goes to show the baleful influence the Crescent exerts in its own town. Let the Crescent go on in its fight against the government and it may discourage volunteering still more.

If it would suspend its publication a few weeks, Appleton might be enabled to make up its quota.

RE-ENLISTED.—The Madison Journal learns that the companies of Capt. Ingelhardt and Capt. Miller of the 9th regiment, have re-enlisted and are at Benton Barracks, St. Louis.

A St. Louis paper of the 10th, says: "The iron-clad Cleveland was launched at Cincinnati this morning. A sad accident marred the occasion. A coil of rope attached to the anchor spun out so rapidly as to carry overboard a daughter of Capt. Eads, three other ladies and a son of Ex-Slayer Filley. All were rescued save one, Mrs. Bradley, who was drowned."

Ohio—Gov. Brough has issued a proclamation to the people of Ohio, urging a united effort to fill the quota of the State by volunteering. It is estimated that 25,000 are still due altogether from that State.

NUMBER 290.

GENERAL PARAGRAPHS.

—The Catholic Bishop of Philadelphia, Dr. Wood, has issued a pastoral denouncing the Fenian Brotherhood.

—Wm. A. Graham, who ran as Vice President on the ticket with Gen. Scott, has been elected a rebel Senator.

—The poet Bryant has two brothers living in Illinois, both well-to-do farmers. One of them is United States Collector of Internal Revenue.

—A colored Major in full uniform was turned out of a street car, in Washington, and on that account arrived half an hour behind time at a Court Martial. Gen. Martindale will investigate the matter.

—Monday last Mrs. McCarey, a Baltimore woman, was caught trying to smuggle liquor down to Portsmouth, Va. She had six large canteens of whisky concealed in pockets in her petticoats.

—Maj. Gen. McDowell denies in a letter to the New York Times, that he is a member of a secret organization known as the Golden Circle, as indicated by the witness in the "Buckshot" trials in Pennsylvania.

—The Philadelphia papers publish a long series of documents in defense of General McCall and the Pennsylvania Regiments, whose conduct in some of the engagements on the Peninsula was impugned in Gen. McClellan's report.

—Samuel H. Sanford, of Plymouth, Conn., has five sons in the army, besides one who was drafted, and a few days ago the old man himself endeavored to enlist, but was rejected on account of his age.

—Lieut. Wm. H. Merritt has presented to Gov. Seymour a handsome cane, made from palm leaf, cut on Folly Island, opposite Secessionville. It bears the inscription, on a silver plate: "To Horatio Seymour, Governor of New York. Our Beloved Country."

—Gov. Brough, of Ohio, recently observed a young officer grossly intoxicated in the streets of Columbus. He immediately telegraphed the fact to the Secretary of War, and before the young man had time to resort to soda water or other restoratives he was dismissed the service.

Married the Wrong Woman.

From the Mayville, Ky., Express.

A short time ago a candidate for matronly arrived in town, and straightway reported to the office of our obliging county clerk for the purpose of obtaining a marriage certificate. The clerk misinterpreted the name of the fair one, and consequently inserted the wrong name. The intended groom was so delighted by the prospects before him that he did not stop to read the document placed in his hand, but, forking over two dollars, he thrust his legal privilege in his pocket. The two reported to the house of the clergyman, where the document was presented, when, in the eyes of the minister, appearing perfectly satisfactory, the two were united in the holy bonds of wedlock.

—The next morning, upon seating themselves at the breakfast table of one of the hotels, the groom commenced reading the record of his marriage in the morning paper, and found that the printers had him married to another woman. Thrusting his hand in his pocket, he pulled out his marriage license, when, lo and behold, to his utter astonishment, he discovered that the clerk had committed the grave error of inserting the wrong name of his intended bride. Turning to the object of his affections, and with an excited yet tremulous voice, he exclaimed: "Maria, a mistake has been made, and I am married to the wrong woman. You are not my lawful wife." Maria gave a glance at the document, and with a half-drawn sigh, answered, "It's no use fretting, Jeremiah, it's too late now."

—A TOUCHING INCIDENT.—An officer, just returned from the West, relates a touching incident of the loyalty and tendency of many of the inhabitants of that nominally secessed land. After the battle of Bean Station, the rebels were guilty of all manner of indignity toward the slain. They stripped their bodies, and shot persons who came near the battle-field to show any attention to the dead. The body of a little drummer boy was left naked and exposed. Near by, in an humble house, there were two young girls, the eldest but sixteen, who resolved to give the body a decent burial. They took the night for their task. With hammer and nails in hand, and boards on their shoulders, they sought the place where the body of the dead drummer boy lay. From their own scanty wardrobe, they clothed the body for the grave. With their own hands they made a rude coffin, in which they reverently put the dead body. They dug the grave and lowered the body into it and covered it over. The noise of the hammering brought some of the rebels to the spot. The sight was too much for them. Not a word was spoken, no one interfered, and when the sacred rites of the burial were performed, all separated, and the little drummer boy sleeps undisturbed in his grave on the battle-field. Such tenderness and heroism deserve to run along the line of coming generations with the story of the woman who broke the slabster box on the feet of the Savior, and with her who of her penny cast her two mites into the treasury.

—THE NUMBERS AND SPIRITS OF MEADE'S ARMY.—A letter from the Army of the Potomac in the Boston Advertiser says: "Notwithstanding the large number of furloughs and leaves of absence granted in this army, its forces are daily augmenting. When those now at home and others who will be allowed to come shall have returned, the Army of the Potomac will be larger and more efficient than it ever was before."

—THE APPLTON Crescent makes a great blow over two democratic towns in Outagamie county, that they have raised a larger sum for volunteer bounties than Appleton, which is a republican town with a larger population than the aforementioned towns. It is remarkable that two such towns could be found to surpass Appleton in patriotism, but it only goes to show the baleful influence the Crescent exerts in its own town. BIGOTRY AND PERSECUTION.—One of the most remarkable cases of bigotry and persecution that have come to light within the past century, has recently been ventilated in Montello, Kankakee county, Ill. Rev. Theophilus Packard, differing in religious views from his wife, a woman of liberal mind and rare attainments, for some four years has been persecuting her, alleging that she was hopelessly insane and incapable of caring for her children, &c. The unhappy woman protested against the charge, which only served to tighten her chains and increase the arguments used to prove her insanity. By aid of bribes, Packard obtained several certificates testifying that she was insane from neighboring M. D.'s. The plot was almost consummated, and the wretched woman was about to be hurried into an Asylum in Massachusetts, when she was rescued on a writ of habeas corpus, and her case brought before Hon. C. R. Star. The trial lasted six days, at the end of which time the jury rendered a verdict that Mrs. Packard was not insane.

SAXTON DELIVERS UP THE MORTGAGES.—About $80,000 of bonds and mortgages held by Luther C. Saxton, who has gone into the tutoring business at Auburn, against Aristarchus Champion, have been discharged by Saxton's son, who received power of attorney from his father. The counsel for Mr. Champion, was about taking steps to have them set aside by the Court. It is reported that the consideration for the discharge of the mortgages, was $10,000.—Rochester Express.

MIX'S PATENT VENTILATOR

—FOR—

COAL OIL LAMPS!!

This article is now offered to the citizens of Janesville.

A No-Chimney Burner!

It will produce a larger light than with the chimney, and is perfectly safe, economical or safe. The lamp will not catch fire, and the lamp will be lit with the trouble of a candle, and is sold at so low a price as to bring it into universal use.

Directions for Use.

Trim the lamp as for a chimney, remove the cone from the burner and put a Ventilator in its place, and it is ready for use.

It will give a brilliant light without smoke, soft and pleasant for eyes, and cannot be surpassed for portable use. The longer it is used the better it is sold.

SEAVEY'S Heating Furnaces—
For Dwellings, Public Hall, Stores, Churches, &c.
We invite the attention of the public to our

Heating Furnaces for Hard & Soft Coal

These Furnaces take less fuel and are easier managed than any other in the market, as one fire will last all winter without rekindling. Every furnace warranted to give satisfaction or the money returned. The best of references given.
